

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1908.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

THE LOUISVILLE WAY.
This is a world of strife and sin.
Although each voter does his best,
We put our little ballot in:
The man who counts 'em does the rest.

THE LEDGER delights in obliging its friends. It prints "Help Wanted," "Situations Wanted," "Lost" and "Found" notices free of charge; and as it costs you nothing for such service, don't you think it is as little as you can do to write the copy and either bring or send it to the office?

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

Mrs. Pauline Schwartz is very ill at her home in West Third street.

Mr. Robert K. Allison has accepted a position with the National Cash Register at Dayton, O.

George Linkin, who was in the shoe business in Mt. Sterling for many years and recently died there, told a man on his deathbed that his name was Patrick McMurray, and that in his youth, twenty-five years ago, he had killed in Detroit a man who had betrayed his (McMurray's) fiancée.

Mr. J. C. Pecor, the Second Street Druggist, is about through with his fall house cleaning at his place of business, and there is such a pleasing change in the surroundings you will hardly recognize it as the same place. Good taste in the general arrangement, added to the artistic work of the painter and paper hanger, has wrought wonders.

Our stock of Mounted Diamonds is the largest in the city, comprising the very latest mountings. See our new Cluster Rings; nothing ever seen here like them; have the effect of a large solitaire. Our combination rings are new and beautiful—diamonds with ruby, emerald, sapphire, pearl and opals, all the latest combinations. We are leaders in diamond goods. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

WILL CONTEST SEAT

Judge Cole of Greenup Will Ask Legislature to Decide Case

Having been denied an injunction to compel the Election Board to give him the certificate, Judge William T. Cole, candidate for Representative from Greenup county, will take his claim to the Legislature.

The official count shows that Cole, Democrat, received 1,233 votes; Charles W. G. Hannah, 1,285; and B. F. Bennett, 86 votes.

The certificate of election was given to Hannah, but Cole contends that a recount would show his election by four votes, and he will now take the matter to the Legislature. Colonel B. F. Bennett will also contest the election of Hannah on the ground of fraud, making a unique proceeding of two men contesting for the same office.

DRANK CARBOLIC ACID

Suicide of a Former Maysville Man at Urbana, O.

Friday Major Thomas J. Chenoweth received in his mail a letter dated Urbana, O., from J. W. Amptreter, Coroner of Champaign county, containing a photograph of a dead man lying in a coffin.

The letter went on to say that he had committed suicide at that place by drinking carbolic acid, and that the label on the bottle contained the name of T. J. Chenoweth, Druggist, Maysville, Ky.

The dead man is described as being about 65 years old, five feet ten inches, gray hair and mustache, and fairly well dressed.

Quite a number here who have seen the picture recognize the features as those of A. G. Beechman, who for several years was employed as a harness maker at George Schroeder's Factory in Sutton street.

Beechman was in the city some three or four weeks ago taking orders for a Cincinnati wine house. He is said to have been of a morose temperament, and not of a sociable disposition.

Mr. Schroeder received a letter last week from his wife, importuning him to take him back, saying she was fearful something dreadful would happen.

Taken altogether it is more than likely that the remains are those of A. G. Beechman.

SUDDENLY CALLED

Henry H. Henney Dropped Dead Yesterday at South Ripley

Mr. Henry H. Henney of Aberdeen dropped dead yesterday morning in the Depot at South Ripley while waiting for the 9:55 o'clock C. and O. Eastbound train to take passage for this city.

The deceased and his wife were returning from Georgetown, O., where they had been attending to some legal business for their grandson.

When death overtook him he was conversing with Miss Oma Chambers, who has charge of a school near Ewing, but on account of an epidemic in that neighborhood, is visiting at her home in Ohio.

He had just remarked to Miss Chambers that he was not feeling well, when he was stricken and died instantly.

The body, accompanied by the grief-stricken wife, was brought to this city and transferred to his late home in Aberdeen.

Mr. Henney was born in Pennsylvania and would have been 65 years old had he lived until January 13th, 1906.

He lived for 40 years at North Liberty, O., where he ran a blacksmith shop and conducted a hotel.

Having retired from business, he and his family took up their residence in Aberdeen two years ago.

He was a Veteran of the Civil War, having served in the Tenth Kentucky Cavalry.

Besides a wife he leaves three children.

He was highly respected and a Christian gentleman.

He will be buried at Cherry Fork, O.

Do you want the best Real Estate Agency in the state located in Maysville? If so help me to make mine such. Nothing will do more to develop our city than a first-class, all-round, wide-awake, up-to-date real estate dealer. Will you give me your support and business? JOHN DULEY.

MORRISSEY'S IRELAND.

Morrissey's $5,000 moving scenic production of Ireland combined with the Hibernian Troubadours and select vaudeville will be at the Washington Opera-house tonight. The entertainment may be said to be in a class by itself, presenting a great moving tableau of Erin, illustrating with astounding realistic effect a tour throughout the Emerald Isle.

Dear Gus: I have solved the mother-in-law problem; just give her regularly Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It will make her healthy, happy and docile as a lamb. 25 cents. Tea or Tablets. J. J. Wood & Son.

The smallpox scare at Nepton has about subsided, all the patients now being on the road to recovery.

The battleship Kentucky holds the record for an American warship for having sent a message the longest distance by wireless telegraph, according to the reports received at the Bureau of Equipment of the Navy Department. The Kentucky, while lying in Hampton Roads, sent a message to the wireless station at Beaufort, S. C., a distance of 500 miles.

It will wash and not rub off.
This complexion all envy me.
It's no secret, so I'll tell:
Take thou Rocky Mountain Tea.
